

DR. ED THOMAS PRESENTS TO REGIONAL MATH TEACHERS

First Quarter NCEC Professional Development

JULY – SEPTEMBER 2015

NCEC Professional Development Off to a Successful Start

504 Training

Forty educators from across the region attended the 504 training in Rugby on September 30.

First Quarter was a busy time for NCEC Professional Development.

- Four PD Sessions:
 - Algebra to the Core
 - Principal PLC
 - Science Teacher Workshop
 - 504 Training
 - 83 attended
 - 76 responded to surveys
- Upcoming Sessions:
- PE Teacher Workshop
 - Library Technology
 - History/Social Studies Teacher Workshop
 - ELA/Fine Arts Teacher Workshop
 - AdvancEd Workday
 - Principal PLCs
 - WorkKeys strategies Workshop

FAST FACTS

97%

Of participants valued the content of the workshops to some or to a substantial extent.

95%

Of participants felt the workshop increased their skills to some or to a substantial extent.

FUNDING THANKS TO:

Thank you for the access to the website. I look forward to the daily warm-up mental math strings with my students. Who doesn't hope for higher scores? I also am excited for the math facts practice idea too! Thanks for coming to Rugby, come back soon. – Algebra to the Core Exit Survey Response